DCFR Explorer Post #901

What Does It Mean To Be An Explorer?

To be an Explorer means that you will be joining an elite group of young people preparing for their future. You will be working with Firefighters/EMTs/Paramedics as they respond to emergency calls. You will be learning skills that will prepare you to become a Firefighter/Firemedic or assist you in whatever career you select. As an Explorer, you are a part of and represent the DeKalb County Fire Rescue Department.

What Is Fire Exploring All About?

The Fire Exploring program content includes, but not limited to: Orientation to the fire service, Fire Alarms, Communication, Vehicle Extrication, Apparatus and Equipment Identification, Fire Behavior, Portable Fire Extinguishers, Fire Streams, Ladders, Water Supply, Hose, Tools and Equipment, Forcible Entry, Salvage/Overhaul, Ventilation, Self-Contained Breathing Apparatus (SCBA), Scene Safety, Emergency Medical Training, CPR/AED Training, Controlled Fire Burning Exercise, Apparatus Ride Along, Physical Training and Life Skills.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs):

Q: Is there a charge to be an Explorer? Explorers must purchase their own uniform and pay applicable membership fees, annual dues and event participation fees.

Q: Do Explorers get paid? No, this is a voluntary, career orientation program
